2.2. Format

Matches in beach wrestling take place within a designated 7-meter diameter sand circle, marked by a boundary tape ranging between 8cm to 10cm in width. This space is where the entire competition unfolds, and it ensures that all athletes perform within a confined and controlled environment. The competition format is structured around a single 3-minute round, with no scheduled breaks during the match. This duration ensures fast-paced action and dynamic competition.

No. of Wrestlers	No. of Groups	Format
Less than 6	One	Nordic only, no knockouts
6 - 8	Two	Nordic in group phase Semi-finals between top two in each group
9 – 12	Three	Nordic in group phase Semi-finals between top one in each group and the best second place

For all these cases, a bout for the 3rd place will be organized between the two losers of the semi-finals.

2.3. Weigh in and Draw

First weigh-in will be conducted two hours before the start of the morning competition

The draw will be conducted after the weigh in has been completed.

2.4. Schedule

The competition will be broken into two sessions per day

Morning Session: 10am to 1pm – qualifying rounds

Afternoon Session: 4pm to 6pm – finals and awards

A uniform check will also be conducted during the weigh-in.

	30+	50kg	Female
9th Feb	All ages	90kg, +90kg	Male

2.5. Scoring

Scoring in beach wrestling adheres to the guidelines set by United World Wrestling (UWW). Points are awarded for various actions during the match. A wrestler earns 1 point for a successful takedown, a pushout, or for causing an illegal action by the opponent. A more significant 3-point score is awarded for a takedown that results in back exposure, showcasing a dominant move. These points form the basis for the wrestler's progress in the match and ultimately determine the winner. This scoring system ensures that matches are both competitive and consistent with international standards.
